

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 3/4	Tudors	China We are learning to identify the position of the Prime/Greenwich Meridian and understand the significance of latitude and longitude. We are learning to identify and sequence a range of settlement sizes from village to city. We are learning to understand how physical processes can cause hazards to people. We are learning to describe some advantages and disadvantages of living in hazard-prone areas. We are learning to recognise different natural features, such as mountain and river, and describe them using a range of vocabulary. We are learning to use a globe and map to identify the position of the Poles, the Equator, Northern Hemisphere and Southern Hemisphere.	The Romans (Including a location study of Italy) We are learning to locate some countries in Europe on a map or atlas.

--	--	--	--