

Learning at Home

Below are websites which are appropriate to support learning at home in the different areas listed below.

Writing

- Fun English Games: This website promotes children's ability to debate. More suitable for Key Stage Two.
- Read for Good: On this website, children are able to create a short story that is fun and inspirational. From this, children can create extended adventures. This is suitable for all ages.
- ICT Games: This website has lots of exciting games for children who would like to practise their phonics and spelling of the high frequency words.
- Primary Homework Help: This brilliant resource covers many areas of English, such as spelling and phonics, reading, grammar, punctuation and writing for different text types

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar (SPaG)

- Top Marks: The Topmarks website is safe and used in schools around the country and is great for English activities for Key Stage Two. It has fun games and activities to complete to help learn about Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar.
- Grammar, punctuation and spelling: This BBC website has a range of activities to help with Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar activities for Key Stage Two.
- Crickweb: The Crickweb website is great for a range of English activities for Key Stage One and Two. There are a selection of fun and interactive Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar activities for Key Stage One and Two.

Reading

- Oxford Owl: Oxford Owl has lots of hints and tips for reading with your child at home. There is also access to a free eBook library of 250 books, along with suggestions for reading books and kid's activities.
- Love Reading 4 Kids: A great link for news on new books, recommendations and emphasising the importance of books in our modern world, where so much is digital.
- Top Marks: This site has many links to some great reading activities including comprehension, deduction, fiction and non-fiction in a fun way.
- PhonicsPlay.co.uk – an interactive site with phonics games for all phonic phases*
- Mr Thorn Does Phonics – an excellent YouTube channel with a variety of phonics clips ensuring correct pronunciation of sounds
- TopMarks Phonics

**Phonic phases: Early years learn phase 2, 3 and 4. Year 1 learn phase 5. Year 2 learn phase 6.*

Maths

- BBC Bitesize - KS1 These BBC Bitesize websites have a range of Maths activities for Key Stage One and Two. It has fun games and activities to complete to help learn about number, measure and geometry.
- BBC Bitesize - KS2 These BBC Bitesize websites have a range of Maths activities for Key Stage One and Two. It has fun games and activities to complete to help learn about number, measure and geometry.
- Top Marks - The Topmarks website is safe and used in schools around the country for its great Maths activities. There are engaging games and interactive activities to help learn more about maths topics.
- Maths Zone - This website covers a lot of topics from our Maths lessons. It has great resources, activities and interactive questions to answer.
- Crickweb - This website is full of times tables questions and challenges so you can improve your speed!
- Times Tables
- Time Table Rock Stars

Computing

- Code - a range of 1 hour tutorials for all year groups
- Scratch – Create stories, games and animations
- Code Club – online projects for computing fans!

General

- Woodlands Primary School – a wide range of interactive resources across a range of subjects
- Twinkl – a wide variety of printable resources to support learning

Please click on the link below to explore the National Curriculum aims and content for each year group.

<https://www.georgeham-primary.devon.sch.uk/wp-content/uploads/2016/01/Rising-Stars-Parents-Complete-National-Curriculum-Guide.pdf>

